

Rules and Policies

- All tuition, costume fees and competition fees must be paid before a dancer will be permitted to participate in performances and or competitions. All students participating in our annual recital(s) will not be dismissed until each show is completed in its entirety – no exceptions.
- Monthly tuition must be paid by the 10th of each month. A late fee of $10 will be charged for each late tuition payment. There is a $25 charge on all returned checks.
- No refunds or credits on missed classes or school closings. Make-ups due to absence or illness are encouraged. Make-ups may not be transferred to another family member, or used instead of tuition. The Dream Center Inc. follows in accordance with the Massapequa school calendar. All holidays indicating religious observance without a school closing are considered an excused absence and will entitle the student to a make-up.
- Appropriate attire must be worn to class in order for dancers to participate. Hair for ballet should be in a secure bun and shoes should be properly fitted and safe to dance in. Please refer to the clothing for dance class in our brochure.
- The Dream Center, Inc. teachers will make decisions as to the appropriate class level for each student and will consult the Director and inform students and parents if a change is appropriate.
- Punctual and consistent attendance is expected of all Dream Center Inc. students in order to maintain our high performance standards. Students may not arrive late for class unless the teacher has been notified.
- The Director will be happy to arrange a conference at the students or parents request; please do not confer with teachers during class time.
- All perspective dance company members must be invited by the director and require a yearly audition.
- Children and siblings must be supervised when not in class. Please help take care of the facility by watching your children in the waiting rooms and bathrooms.
- No food in the dance studios. No gum. Parents and students are expected to pick up after themselves and use the trash bins provided.
- Students, parents and teachers are expected to conduct themselves with respect for each other at all times. A cooperative environment is essential for learning.
- The Dream Center, Inc. reserves the right to refuse service, or cancel class schedules for any reason.
